Messrs. Krishnappa and Channakesava Rao, Koppa taluk, and Santappa Setty, Yedahalli sub-taluk.

Summary of discussion.—(a) The civil jurisdiction over the Koppa taluk was formerly vested in the defunct Munsiff's Court at Yedahalli. On the abolition of that court it was transferred to Chikmagalur. A Munisiff's court may be established at Yedahalli or Koppa.

(b) Since the abolition of the Munsiff's court at Yedahalli, the people of the sub-taluk find it very inconvenient to go a long distance of 50 miles to Shimoga to get their disputes settled. Either a Munsiff's court or a Revenue Sub-Division office may be established at Yedahalli.

Reply of Government.—Will be considered.
